
September

- 20-21 People's Climate March, New York City, coinciding with United Nations Climate Change Summit. For information, including transportation, see <http://peoplesclimate.org/march/>
- 22 Monday, 9:00 – 11:00: Resilient Rhode Island Forum at RI Foundation. Follow-up on new law, EC3 report, updates, building multi-sector support for next steps.
- 11:30: Vote Yes on 7 campaign kick-off event for clean water, open space and healthy communities bond. Riverside Park, Aleppo Street, Olneyville.
- 26 Friday, 12:00 – 5:30: Greenhouse Gas Emissions in Rhode Island: from Goals to Implementation at Alumni Hall, Brown University. A workshop focusing on strategies to meet the emission reduction targets that are now state law.

October

- 3 Friday, 2:30 – 3:30: Ceremonial signing of clean energy bills, at Slater Mill, Pawtucket.
- 17 Friday, 8:00 – 12:00: Funding Infrastructure in Rhode Island. A symposium hosted by the Hassenfeld Institute for Public Leadership at Bryant University.
- 22 Wednesday, 6:00 – 8:00: BeachSAMP stakeholder meeting, Coastal Institute Auditorium, URI Bay Campus. Agenda will be posted at <http://www.beachsamp.org/calendar/>.
- 23-24 Thursday-Friday: American Planning Association-Southeastern New England, at the Convention Center, Providence. For details see <http://www.sneapa.org/>.
- 28 Tuesday, 9:00 -12:00: Protecting Coastal Wetlands in Your Community in Consideration of Sea Level Rise, a workshop for municipal planners, other local officials, land trusts, sponsored by CRMC, Narragansett Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve, The Nature Conservancy, Save the Bay and others, at Roger Williams University School of Law, Bristol.
- 30 Thursday, 9:00 -12:00: Protecting Coastal Wetlands in Your Community in Consideration of Sea Level Rise, at URI Coastal Institute, Narragansett.