

2020 STATEWIDE PLANNING VIRTUAL SPEAKER SERIES

THE IMPACT OF COVID-19 ON TRANSPORTATION FUNDING

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20
12PM -1PM

Speaker: TERRANCE J. REGAN

USDOT Volpe Center and Adjunct Professor of City
Planning & Urban Affairs, Boston University

Join Terry Regan for his always-lively annual discussion about transportation funding. This year, he will discuss the impacts that the health pandemic has had (and will) have on the future of transportation funding. This is a virtual event.

Mr. Regan is the Volpe Center's principal technical advisor for innovative transportation planning and financing in the Transportation Planning Capacity Building Program and the Office of Innovative Program Delivery. (CM 1.0)
